Dear Ms. Vromen:

It is my pleasure to inform you that Keren Grinspoon Israel has been selected as a 2020 Library of Congress Literacy Awards Program Best Practice Honoree. This $5,000 award, which will be deposited electronically into a bank account that you designate, recognizes your organization's achievement in the promotion of literacy and in the development of innovative methods and effective practices in the field. Originated by and sponsored through the generosity of David M. Rubenstein, and administered by the Learning and Innovation Office at the Library of Congress, the Literacy Awards Program honors organizations that have made outstanding contributions to increasing literacy in the United States or abroad.

I ask that you hold this good news under embargo until we are ready to announce the full slate of prizes in a few weeks. We will coordinate with you on the announcement for press and social media at that time. Your organization, along with other best practice honorees and award recipients, will also be invited to participate in a best practices conference.

Literacy Awards Program staff will contact you with further logistical details and instructions. Meanwhile, if you have any questions, please contact Dawn W. Stitzel, National Program Director, Literacy Awards at dsti@loc.gov.

Congratulations!

Sincerely,
